Walk Summary:	Morwell NP is a small, unique area of remnant forest in the northern foothills of the Strezlecki Ranges. It includes fern gullies, dryer eucalypt ridges, revegetated river flats, nature gum. At this time of year there is an abundance of fungi and lichen. Wildlife in the park are wallabies, wombats, possums, kangaroos and koalas. We will join Friends of Morwell National Park for their annual fungi and lichen walk at 10am. We will be back at the picnic area for lunch. After lunch we can go onto Billy's Creek Trail towards the old weir.
